Dear Arlene
I can't say anything except that it's been great. I had so much fun with you this year.
Don't ever forget your year at 'ole' E.H.S. And remember all the fun
we've had in school and at the church. I hope everything nice happens to you in the coming years

Love ya
Carolyn

Dear Arlene,
I've had more fun
with you in E.H.S. since you've come to E.H.S you're really just a brightspot
in the whole school with your personality. I hope to see more of you in coming years.

Dear Arlene,
It doesn't seem like you're going to college next year
We'll sure hate to see you go. Be sure to keep in touch with our gang! Good luck
in whatever you do.
Love, Jane

Another school year with many highlights is fast drawing to a close. The thrills and excitement we will long remember. For us as seniors, it is our last year in high school. For you as juniors and sophomores, there still is a glorious time before you. In the following pages we have tried to capture those moments that have played a great part in our lives and which will in the future recall our school days at E. H. S. and all the friends we have made.

ELLEN ICE

. . . More than 5,000 Lyon county students have . . . passed through the doorway of room 29, learning from Ellen Ice the duties of citizenship, and the rich story of our nation's past. Here is almost a half century of high usefulness to our town, which ended as school closed last spring and Ellen Ice shut the door of room 29 forever behind her.

THE COLLEGE OF EMPORIA

Offers a

$200.00 SCHOLARSHIP

To Every Emporia High Graduate

By special action of the Board of Trustees of The College of Emporia, any graduate of an accredited Lyon County High School will be granted a "Trustees' Scholarship" of $200.00 per year, these scholarships being in addition to any of the over 250 other scholarships available to entering students who qualify for them.

The College of Emporia, offers you a wide program of "Liberal Arts with Christian Emphasis."

A small school, it offers you as one of its students the distinct advantages inherent in the small college: individualized instruction, a friendly atmosphere, and an exceptional student-faculty relationship.

Its teaching graduates, its business and science graduates, its religious leaders, and its students in scores of other fields and professions have received fine training for their life work and for morally-responsible citizenship.

Its music faculty is particularly outstanding, and almost every C. of E. student finds it possible to take part in the musical events of "The College."

Wonderful new science facilities will be available early in 1956 when the $290,000 science hall is built and equipped.

The College of Emporia is accredited by the North Central Association, and by numerous other accrediting agencies.

Dear Arlene,
I don't need to tell you I have much fun we'll had this year. Our memories speak for themselves. Just fancy you're going to college does it mean all these good times (Mary Beth's, slumber parties) have to stop. We can make next year a real thriller!!! I don't need to say how very much I've enjoyed having you as a friend it's been great!! Will just go on enjoying Davy Crockett and other songs together.
Love ya

Dear Arlene,
The bestest addition to E.H.S. from T.H.S - that's you !!!!! Don't forget all our "messes" (maybe you letter, some!), our fun in Haney's class - the rush - and 'specially "Davy".
Oh, there's so much to remember - I could use up two or three pages! I hope we have as much fun next year at E-State (& hope you're there!) and always...
Lots "a" Luck and love
to the bestest pal!

Honor Group

This large group of forty-two seniors is an inspiration for the underclassmen to reach this high attainment in high school. This achievement is not a privilege, but involves much work, because it is their scholastic standing that enables them to be on the honor roll. These students received tiny pins in the shape of open scrolls as a symbol of their achievement. A tea was given in their honor by the faculty in the afternoon.

Speech-Dramatics Banquet

Emporia High debaters participated in ten tournaments this year and completed one of the most successful debate years in the school's history. Kay Lindquist, Tom Williams, Martha Stout, and Don Herrick, working as a four speaker team won first place in the district tournament. The district victory entitled them to represent the school at the State AA debate tournament, where they placed seventh. This was the first year that Emporia has participated in the state championship tournament since 1951.

Other debaters on the squad this year included Margaret Parks and Wayne Lowery, alternates for the first team; Marcia Becker, Barbara Buster, Dorothy Stoepplewerth, Carol Forrester, Eugene Hopper, and Gary McMillan.

Besides the first place trophy from the district the debaters won third place trophies at the Shawnee Mission and Fort Scott tournaments. The Shawnee Mission trophy was won by Martha Stout and Don Herrick while Dorothy Stoepplewerth and Don Herrick accounted for the Fort Scott award. In addition Kay Lindquist and Tom Williams reached the quarter finals at Hutchinson and Martha Stout and Don Herrick missed the semi-finals at Pittsburg by an unlucky draw with Wyandotte when both teams were tied on wins and points for semi-final qualifications.

After the debate season was completed in early February, the speech students concentrated on the spring speech events. Five Emporians received I ratings at the district speech festival in March. They were Connie Allen, Wayne Lowery, Eugene Hopper, Don Herrick, and Barbara Buster. Connie Allen and Don Herrick went on to receive I ratings at the State Speech Festival. Connie in humorous reading and Don in extemporaneous speaking.

The activities of the year were concluded by a Speech-Dramatics banquet, held May 20. The theme of the banquet was "Under the Big Top." The speech and dramatics awards of the year were presented at the banquet.

Officers of the Debate Club were: Wayne Lowery, President; Tom Williams, Vice President; Don Herrick, Treasurer; Eugene Hopper, Secretary. Miss Barbara McJilton was the debate coach.

Thespian Society

The Emporia Senior High dramatic students have joined the National Thespian Society, which is a non-secret, non-social organization devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in the secondary schools. Those who have earned membership in this organization are, from left to right: Kathy Hall, Connie Allen, Eugene Hopper, Pat Clark, Mrs. Dinkler, Tish Pavillard, Mary Kircher, Patsy Schottler, Gerald Facklam, Charles Pocock, Darrell Cross, Janice Zug. Missing from the picture are: Pat Dawson and Ann Dwelle.

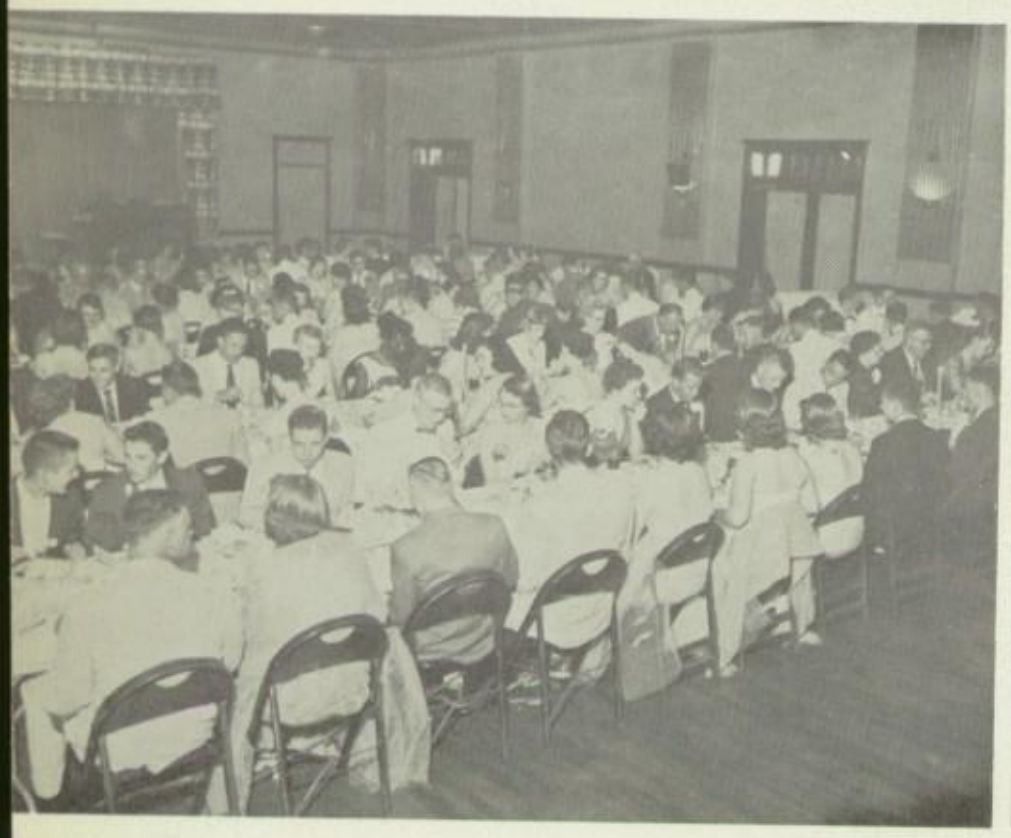
Senior Dinner and Junior-Senior Prom



Remember These?

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1955

Connie Allen leaves her stage personality to Patsy Schottler. Peggy Andrews her cheery smile to Billie Jo Williams. Bernice Barnard leaves Dixie to fill her vacancy. Linda Becker her baton twirling ability to Vivian Webb. Leonita Boan regretfully leaves her place on the Y-Teen Cabinet. Marcia Boyce and Judy Waite—the inseparables—leave together. Shirley Brickley sadly leaves her favorite class, English. Alice Mae Brown her sewing and cooking ability to anyone whose aspirations lie along the same line. Sandra Kufahl her unusual ability to write to any junior who needs it. Marilyn Cade and Mary Jo Cowan their giggles to all of the sophomores who are a little too quiet.

Doris Clemmer and Pat Robinson leave sparkling personalities and friendly manners to anyone who would be willing to use them to advantage. Pat Clark her beautiful operatic voice to Prue Faulkenbury. Margaret Collinge her studious ways to be carried on by her sister Delores. Mary Daily all of her possessions except David. Donna Rae Davis wills an abundance of determination to next year's senior class who will surely need it. Mary Lou Dettmer leaves chewing gum beneath many of the chairs in E.H.S. Clara Jane Dicks and Pat Davidson some of their extra happiness to brighten the halls of E.H.S. next year. Yvonne Drake bequeaths her skillful sewing fingers to Barbara Barger.

Ann Dwelle leaves some of her popularity to be divided up among the underclassmen and takes the rest to college with her. Shirley Edwards, Louise Greenlee, and Barbara Evans bequeath their trials in chemistry to anyone who will be willing to accept them. Judy Faust and Anita Green leave two chairs in the clarinet section of the band to Carolyn Davis and Janice Morgan. Catherine Jehle, Kathy Hall, Betty Miller, and Mary Lou Nail some of their excess exuberance to the teachers of Em Hi. Wanda Harrell bequeaths her many happy memories of E.H.S. to anyone who doesn't have plenty of her own. Beverly Keefover, Barbara Lamb, Virginia Williams, and Phyllis Carter leave high school to enter married life.

Joyce Hensley leaves the song in her heart to cheer and encourage those who come after her. Mary Ann Hollingshead the memory of her sweet smile to all who have known her at E.H.S. Barbara Irwin, the chatterbox, bequeaths her intense interest in Senior Social Studies to Arla Hurst. Louisa Munoz, Janet Jacques, and Pat Stockton their quiet ways to the "Sophs." Peggy Jones wills her cowboy boots and levis to Mary Murphy. Georgie King and Carol Jean Ward will all of their conversations in their sewing class to Mrs. Beck. Mary Lynne Kircher her dramatic talent to anyone who will make good use of it. Wilma Lackey her quiet dignity to all who would enjoy it. Alice Lincoln her stature to Judy Morgan. JoHannah Linebarger her radiant beauty and sparkling personality to the underclassmen.

Ann Longstaff and Virginia Smith bequeath their jitterbugging ability to Nancy VanGorden and Nancy Evans. Carla Loomis wills her modeling aspirations to Sandra Beck. Dorla Lusk and Helen McElfresh leave their politeness to the "Sophs." Carolyn Manda and Diane Pruitt an outstanding grade average behind them. Sue Manning bequeaths her super-friendly smile to the underclassmen, hoping that they will use it to welcome next year's "sophs." Carol Miser wills some of her height to Nancy Scott. Janie Nelson leaves a baby cyclone where she just passed by. Sally O'Brien tosses four advanced math books in for anyone who is in a working mood. Martha Oldham and Tish Pavillard their wide-eyed expressions to Pat Shaver and Karen Moebus. Betty Palmer and Donna Servey leave quietly, but certainly not without notice. Sharon Poole, who has given her best to Emporia High, leaves a vacancy that will be hard to fill. Elaine Hartenbower her lovely dark hair to Marilyn McCallum.

Freida Nicholas, Marguerite Price, and Elaine Redman leave their sincerity and dependability to Barbara Barger and Judy Rosenbalm. Jim Karolik, Larry Bitler, Paul Buckley and John Rider their "full-of-fun" ways to be used by anyone feeling a little "blue." Bobby (Liberace) Keefer his piano and vocal ability to be divided up among next year's Boys' Glee Club. Gary West leaves advanced math just a little confused. Jim Wing, one of our "A" students is leaving with Carla, his steady. Wayne Williams and Fred Burroughs their football positions if we can find anyone big enough to fill them. Bob Coe leaves his physique to Jody Morris. C. J. McGlinn leaves his friendly smile in the memories of all of his classmates. Wayne Stebbins his place in F.F.A. behind him. Wendell Wright for a life down on the farm. Harry Roberts, Ken Ohm, Leonard Moore, Harold Glaze, and Lawrence Finuf leave quietly, but they leave us all happier for knowing them. Dick Adam divides his brains up among the sophomore class knowing they will be used to great advantage. Vernon Alfred his motorcycle and jacket to "hot-rodder" Elvy Hopkins. Martin Alvarado his M-L rifle to any up-and-coming National Guardsman. Bill Barr bequeaths his magnificent physique to his lowly sophomore brother, Bob.

Glenn Barrett leaves with a diploma! Carl Bedner some slightly used cigarettes to Dick DeBauge. Operator Larry Beggs his way with the ladies to Rusty Seacat. Cecil Bollinger wills his missing front teeth to anyone who needs a couple. Bob Cooper, Larry Faulkenbury, and Wesley Fancher bequeath their ways with sophomore and junior girls to next year's senior Romeo. Donals Davis leaves on roller skates. Wayne Duncan with Linda Becker. Gerry Facklam his dramatic ability to future Spartan actors. George Forrester with carburetors and fuel pumps on the brain. George (Clark) Germann a host of swooning underclass-women. Gilbert Graham a pair of football and basketball shoes that will be hard to fill. Bill Hawkins his business-like ways to Bob Davis. Larry Pierce his desires to become a stock car mechanic and ace carburetor cleaner to posterity in general. Charles Pocock for Summer Stock. Calvin Roberts bequeaths his office of F.F.A. president to Lawrence Russell his scraped bumpers and wrinkled fenders to anyone who would like to pay for having them straightened out. Charles Snyder leaves Mr. Lodle with one less willing stagehand. Vernon and Virgil Stanley little unaccomplished in their three year stay at Emporia High. Bill Sweet, John Flott, Jim Nielsen, Robert Shively, and Clayton Zumbrum their chores at school for more chores on the farm. David Trimble his worn-out slide rule and log tables to Harold Wolgast. Marvin Tweedy his important quarterback position on the squad to Ronnie Blaylock. Carl Vail his many important band duties to Don Neufield. Calvin Vernon the roar of his straight pipes ringing in Mr. Bloxom's ears. John Whittington his student council presidency to Pat Dawson. Robert Hill his extra golf tees to anyone who happens to have a collection of golf tees. Bob Bock, Jim Hensler, and Orville Mercer their quietness to the incoming sophs. John Mayhan, our favorite clarinetist, many lively tunes ringing in our ears. Scott Weeks the chemistry and math departments in an uproar. Chef Eugene Hopper feels well-fed after a year in the foods class. Mike Kerwick a big hole in Coach Brown's line for next fall. Lynn Kindred leaves, but will not soon be forgotten either by students or teachers. Dale Longstaff bequeaths his small basketball shoes to Buster. Wayne Lowry leaves to follow a brilliant career as a man of eloquent speech. John McMullen leaves his "handwriting on the wall."

David Mendel leaves Bobby Stevens in charge of the rhythm section of the band. Marilyn Price and Delores Reichardt their eternal willingness to help to all of the underclassmen. Sally Price the job of wardrobe mistress to anyone who loves to work with greasepaint. LaRetta Revel one Y-Teen organization in excellent working condition to Rhonda Johnston. Arlene Richardson her flute to Brenda Bruckner. Pat Romer leaves her pet, the Spartan Club, to Judy Morgan. Sue Specht and Carolyn Suddock their lovely red hair to anyone who would like red hair for a change and would take care of it. Shirley Thomas her bouncy personality to Nancy Jo Wood. Ann Underwood and Jerry Brown the publishing of next year's Re-Echo to anyone who can do as wonderful a job. Elsie Vansickle Nail her blond prettiness to Linda Darby. Marsha Walker and Carolyn Spatz leave their cheerleading ability to Karen Walker and Vicki Bixler. Mary Waterman, Charlotte Schaeffer, and Ruth Stem their gentleness to the seniors who will take their place. Marilyn Weaver bequeaths her gracefulness and trim figure to Marty Ormsby. Jeanie Ziegler leaves her delicate beauty to the lucky 1956 "Queen of the Courts." Vivian Heidel her winning ways to Pauline Browning.

Paul Mordy is the third Mordy brother to leave Emporia High with high honors. David Morfitt his ability to study to the sophomores and juniors. Larry Nimmo turns over a new leaf and leaves his partying ways at Em Hi. Dave Pool and Dean Olin leave the sophomores and juniors to hold down Emporia's prestige in javelin throwing. David and Harold Lang leave their teachers still confused. Martin White leaves his friendliness to all who have known him.
